Consent or Denial of Consent For Release of Student Information to Military Recruiters or College/University Recruiters

Under the federal "No Child Left Behind" Act, public high schools must give the names, addresses and telephone numbers of students to the U.S. military and college/university recruiters if the recruiters request the information. However, students or their parents have the right to instruct the school in writing that this information is not to be released to either the military or colleges or both.

If you do not consent to the release of this information to military recruiters and/or colleges, please check the appropriate box or boxes below. To be certain your wishes are respected; please return this form to Student Support Services at Newburyport High School by Thursday, August 30, 2018, although signed forms returned after that date will be effective after receipt by Student Support Services.

- DO NOT release student contact information to Military Recruiters
- DO NOT release contact information to College or University Recruiters
