Newburyport High School Scholarship Booklet - 2019

Number	Scholarship Name	Quantity	Amount
139	WRITE THE WORLD SCHOLARSHIP	1	$1000

This scholarship for a student committed to using writing to promote social justice. Candidates must submit one piece of poetry or prose and a brief statement about how they envision continuing to "right" the world through their writing. Given that Akira Kurosawa said, "To be an artist means never to avert one's eyes," explain in no more than three paragraphs how you hope your work will open the eyes of those who read it.

Please note that your piece does not necessarily have to be about racism or climate change, although those are two fine topics. It only needs to address the dignity every human deserves, which can even be done in a love poem!

To Apply: Submit two typed copies of the work and explanation: one with your name on it and one without (in order to facilitate impartial judging by a panel of professional writers including Andre Dubus III and Rhina Espaillat). Submit to Main Office by 3PM

DUE DATE: Thursday, April 25, 2019

S	GENERAL CHARITABLE SOCIETY OF NEWBURYPORT SCHOLARSHIP	1	$1000
---	--	---	--------

The General Charitable Society of Newburyport was founded in 1851 by a group of women living in the South End who, distressed by the poverty of some of their neighbors, decided to take action and assist the needy. The Society continues to reach out within the Newburyport community today with charitable work and involvement which supports Newburyport residents in need. From the original articles of incorporation: The Society's mission is "to lend a helping hand to those who are struggling though poverty and discouragements".

This scholarship for outstanding community service is to be awarded to a graduating Newburyport High School senior girl, a Newburyport resident, who has actively reached out to lend a hand within her local Newburyport community, and who, in a variety of ways, has exhibited a commitment to and passion for community service.

To Apply: Sponsor's application form and instructions available in Naviance.
